COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Gustrow Area DIST. 73 RE May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT DISTRIBUTION X 7 7 STATE WAR NAWY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Gustrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	ONLY IGENCE GROUP RY Germany/Russian Zone TRussian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT DIST. 73 EX May 1947 SUPPLEMENT DIST. 73 EX May 1947 SUPPLEMENT	CONLY Chorized I colled by CUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone CONLY GENCE GROUP ERPORT CUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone CONLY GENCE GROUP ERPORT DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT CONLY GENCE GROUP ERPORT CONLY GENCE GROUP ERP	ontents imany neuthorized; reministed by IGENCE GROUP REPORT COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	203 01010 12 mm 20 00 imposmont 202	ya maa ya ta tandanda aar			72 total 72 to tallottatous 2 to
COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Gustrow Area DIST. 73 RMay 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT DISTRIBUTION X 7 7 STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Gustrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	IGENCE GROUP REPORT RY Germany/Russian Zone TRussian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	IGENCE GROUP REPORT DUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT STRIBUTION X 7 7 STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	two road potent of	LLOZI L	0, J.S.O 31 and 32 as smended. Its SHOWER		ALDEL V
COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1 ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X 7. 7. STATE WAR NAWY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Eumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	RY Germany/Russian Zone TRussian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 RI May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT DIST. 73 RI May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	DUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone JBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT STRIBUTION X 7 7 STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE FREPORT DIST. 73 EX May 1947 FOX1-HUN STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT			O, J.S.O 31 and 32 as amended. Its SWORES, reasonatesian d
COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone BUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 X May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1 ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X 7. 7. STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Humerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	RY Germany/Russian Zone TRussian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT THON WAR NAVY JUSTICE TABLES AND TOOM AND TOOM TOOM	DUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone JBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT STRIBUTION X 7. 7. STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE DIST. 73 R May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	contents inany unauthorized [CCNC	Inen; ONLY	O, J.S.O 31 and 32 as amended. Its SWEET rensmission d ontonis imany nauthorized		1man ONLY
DIST. 73 EM May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT DISTRIBUTION X 7 7 STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	THON THON WAR NAVY JUSTICE DIST. 73 RE MAY 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT DIST. 73 RE MAY 1947 SOX1-HU SIPPLEMENT	DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT STRIBUTION X 7. 7. STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE DIST. 73 EX May 1947 SUSTAIL STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE	SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	contents then; unauthorized p prohibited by	INLY IGENCE GROUP	on 1.5.0 31 and 32 as amended. Its — SHORES on tensels than on tents than on the contract of t		ONLY Jed 1 GENCE GROUP
DIST. 73 EM May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT DISTRIBUTION X 7 7 STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	THON THON WAR NAVY JUSTICE DIST. 73 RE MAY 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT DIST. 73 RE MAY 1947 SOX1-HU SIPPLEMENT	DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT STRIBUTION X 7. 7. STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE DIST. 73 EX May 1947 SUSTAIL STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE	SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	contents than; ONLY unauthorized prohibited by	INLY IGENCE GROUP	on 1.5.0 31 and 32 as amended. Its — SHORES on tensels than on tents than on the contract of t		ONLY Jed 1 GENCE GROUP
DIST. 73 R May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT DISTRIBUTION X 7 7	DIST. 73 RE May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT SUPPLEMENT THON WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAP	RIGIN DIST. 73 R May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT STRIBUTION X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X	PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	contents than ONLY underthorized prohibited by IGENC	Inerty and I is by IGENCE GROUP REPORT	ontents inanguation described by GENCE GROUP REPORT	prehibited by	ONLY 2 2 d f d by IGENCE GROUP REPORT
DIST. 73 R May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT DISTRIBUTION X 7 7	DIST. 73 RE May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT SUPPLEMENT THON WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAP	RIGIN DIST. 73 R May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT STRIBUTION X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X	PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	contents than ONLY underthorized prohibited by IGENC	Inerty and I is by IGENCE GROUP REPORT	ontents inanguation described by GENCE GROUP REPORT	prehibited by	ONLY 2 2 d f d by IGENCE GROUP REPORT
ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X	SUPPLEMENT JTION JTION WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAAF	STRIBUTION X X X X X X STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X	PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	contents imany unauthorized probable by IGENC EREPOR COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone	Inc. A Seed I GENCE GROUP REPORT TY Germany/Russian Zone	O, J.S.O 31 and 32 as amended. Its reassalssien de contents liming nauthorized prohibited by GENCE GROUP REPORT COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone	preinibilosé by COUNTRY G	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT RY Germany/Russian Zone
DISTRIBUTION X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X	JTION X. X. WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAAF	STRIBUTION X 7. 7. STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE A.A.F.	ORIGIN	contents imany unauthorized probable by IGENC EREPOR COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 REMay 1947	O, J.S.O 31 and 32 as amended. Its rensmission ontonic imany manthorized promition by COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 Rimay 1947	preinibilosé by COUNTRY G	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT RY Germany/Russian Zone T Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 13 RY May 1947
DISTRIBUTION X	TION T. T. X.	STRIBUTION X 7. 7. STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAF	Vision Vi	contents imany unauthorized probable by IGENC EREPOR COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 50X1-HUN	O, J.S.O 31 and 32 as amended. Its rensmission ontents inang nauthorized prohibited by GENCE GROUP REPORT COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 50X1-HUN	preinibilosé by COUNTRY G	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 50X1-HUN
STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAP	X 7. 7. X X STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAF		contents imany unauthorized is probable by IGENC REPORT COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN	O, J.S.O 31 and 32 as amended. Its rensmission ontonis imany nauthorized prohibited by GENCE GROUP REPORT COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone BUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	prohibited by COUNTRY G	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Resian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN
STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAP	X 7. 7. X X STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAF		contents imany unauthorized is probable by IGENC REPORT COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN	O, J.S.O 31 and 32 as amended. Its rensmission ontonis imany nauthorized prohibited by GENCE GROUP REPORT COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone BUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	prohibited by COUNTRY G	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Resian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN
STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAP	X 7. 7. X X STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAF		contents imany unauthorized is problem by IGENC REPORT COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN	O, J.S.O 31 and 32 as amended. Its rensmission ontonis imany nauthorized prohibited by GENCE GROUP REPORT COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone BUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	prohibited by COUNTRY G	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Resian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN
STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAP	X 7. 7. X X STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAF		contents imany unauthorized is problem by IGENC REPORT COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN	O, J.S.O 31 and 32 as amended. Its rensmission ontonis imany nauthorized prohibited by GENCE GROUP REPORT COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone BUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	prohibited by COUNTRY G	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Resian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN
STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAP	STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE AND	DISTRIBUTION	contents inangunacthorized is prohibited by IGENC REPORT COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIGIN	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	Only Gence Group COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 ORIGIN	COUNTRY G SUBJECT R ORIGIN	GENCE GROUP RY Germany/Russian Zone T Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT
 The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of 				COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIGIN	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Resian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	ONLY GENCE GROUP COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION	COUNTRY G SUBJECT R ORIGIN	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 MMay 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT TION
 The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of 			X 7. 7.	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X	GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	Only Gence Group Country Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Gustrow Area ORIGIN DIST. 73 Extra 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN SUPPLEMENT	COUNTRY G SUBJECT R ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT REPORT ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT ONLY SUPPLEMENT
with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of			X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X	GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT FION T. J. J. JUSTICE APPLICATION LAND JUSTICE ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	ONLY GENCE GROUP COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 X May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X X X X X STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE	COUNTRY G SUBJECT R ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION	ONLY GENCE GROUP RY Germany/Russian Zone TRussian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT TION X 7 7 May 1947 FIND TION X 7 7 May 1947 FIND TION X 7 7 May 1947 FIND TION X 8 May 1947 FIND TION X 8 May 1947 FIND X 9 May 1947 FIND X 1 May 1947 FIND TION X 1 May 1947 FIND TION X 1 May 1947 FIND X 1 May 1947
with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Aumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of		,	X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X	GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT FION T. J. J. JUSTICE APPLICATION LAND JUSTICE ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	ONLY GENCE GROUP COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 X May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X X X X X STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE	COUNTRY GOODS OF THE COUNTRY OF THE	ONLY GENCE GROUP RY Germany/Russian Zone TRussian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT TION X 7 7 May 1947 FIND TION X 7 7 May 1947 FIND TION X 7 7 May 1947 FIND TION X 8 May 1947 FIND TION X 8 May 1947 FIND X 9 May 1947 FIND X 1 May 1947 FIND TION X 1 May 1947 FIND TION X 1 May 1947 FIND X 1 May 1947
with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Aumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of			X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X	GENCE GROUP GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT T. T. WAR NAVY JUSTICE T. T. T. T. T. T. T.	ONLY COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 X May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION DISTRIBUTION X X X X JUSTICE DISTRIBUTION AAP AAP	COUNTRY GOODS OF THE COUNTRY OF THE	ONLY GENCE GROUP RY Germany/Russian Zone TRussian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT TION X 7 7 MAY JUSTICE X APP
is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men,	1. The present Russian strength in the Chatman area in it is a con-	STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAP 50X1-HUN	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X X X X X STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE	Inchigaed is by IGENCE GROUP Report Report Russian Troops in the Gustrow Area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN SUPPLEMENT FION J. J. J. JUSTICE XAPP SOX1-HUN	O, J.S.C 31 and 32 as amended. Its rensaleston Ontones inany manchorized i reniolized by GENCE GROUP REPORT COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 X May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X 7 7	COUNTRY GOODSTRIBUTION STATE V	Inchy 2003 Generally/Russian Zone Ry Germany/Russian Zone Transfer Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN SUPPLEMENT TION TON TON TON TON TON TON
 All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of 	with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops	As a most wastan stranger in the dustrow area 18 at most 4,500 men	STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE LAP 50X1-HUN 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4.500 men	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone GUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT RY Germany/Russian Zone Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 MMay 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN SUPPLEMENT The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4.500 men	O, J.S. 31 and 32 as amended. Its reasalaston on the contents linear manufacturized prohibited by COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 X May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT DISTRIBUTION X 7 7	COUNTRY GOODSTRIBUTION STATE V	ONLY GENCE GROUP RY Germany/Russian Zone Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN SUPPLEMENT TION THON THON THON THON THON The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4.500 men
11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	TO DO WICH A MAXIMUM SEC IIMIC OF SOC	with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops	STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE LAF 50X1-HUN 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops	ONLY GENC COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Resian Troops in the Gustrow Area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN SUPPLEMENT The present Russian strength in the Gustrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops	Only Gence Group Country Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Gustrow Area DIST. 73 KMay 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT DISTRIBUTION X 7 7 1 STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Gustrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops	COUNTRY G SUBJECT R ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X STATE V	ONLY GENCE GROUP RY Germany/Russian Zone Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT THON THO PRESENT NAVY JUSTICE The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops
3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between	with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops	STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE LAF 50X1-HUN 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Resian Troops in the Gustrow Area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN SUPPLEMENT The present Russian strength in the Gustrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops	Only Gence Group Country Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Gustrow Area DIST. 73 KMay 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT DISTRIBUTION X 7 7 1 STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Gustrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops	COUNTRY GOODSTRIBUTION STATE Trivitation by the country of the c	ONLY GENCE GROUP RY Germany/Russian Zone Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT THON THO PRESENT NAVY JUSTICE The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops
3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination.	with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between	STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X	The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between	Only Gence Group Country Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Gustrow Area DIST. 73 RMay 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT DISTRIBUTION X 7 7 STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Gustrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28.	COUNTRY G SUBJECT R ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X STATE v	INEAU 283 I GENCE GROUP RY Germany/Russian Zone TRussian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN SUPPLEMENT THON THON THON THON The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between and and all and animal with the population of	There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between	STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X	The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with Aumerous tanks, left between	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 RMay 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT DISTRIBUTION X 7 7 STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28.	COUNTRY G SUBJECT R ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X STATE v	INEAU 283 I GENCE GROUP RY Germany/Russian Zone TRussian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 KMay 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN SUPPLEMENT THON THON THON THON The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between an improved type of T-34.	an improved type of T-34.	with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination.	STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination.	ONLY IMAGENCIANS IMAGENCIANS IMAGENCIANS COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow are with armored troops in preponderance. The average is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 26. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with a lil and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destinated.	GENCE GROUP REPORT Resian Troops in the Gustrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT The present Russian strength in the Gustrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination.	Only General State of Country Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Göstrow Area DIST. 73 May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X 7 7 STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Göstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 28, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination.	COUNTRY G SUBJECT R ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X STATE v	THON The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with humerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination.
4. Howele of the tweens were total to the office.	Non-la at the tename was total to the	with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Aumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION The present Russian strength in the Güstrow are with armored troops in preponderance. The average is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks.	GENCE GROUP REPORT Resian Troops in the Gastrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN SUPPLEMENT The present Russian strength in the Gastrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	ONLY GENCE GROUP COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT DISTRIBUTION X X X X STATE WAR NAWY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	COUNTRY G SUBJECT R ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X STATE v 1. The wing state of the state o	GROUP ERPORT RY Germany/Russian Zone Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN SUPPLEMENT THON The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of clothing, including that of officers, is in a near condition and there	clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they	with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with humerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34.	STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34.	ONLY IGENC COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Gustrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X	GENCE GROUP REPORT The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with Eumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34.	ONLY COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Clistrow Area DIST. 73 RMay 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X 7 7 STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Glistrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34.	COUNTRY GOOD SUBJECT ROORIGIN DISTRIBUTION STATE V 1. Tr win is win win win win win win	GREAT GR
have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently	have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently	with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their	STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their	ONLY IMAGENCY IMAGENC	GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Gustrow Area DIST. 73 RE May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT The present Russian strength in the Gustrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. Morale of the troops remaining in the Gustrow area is poor. Their	ONLY TREASANCE GROUP COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Gustrow Area DIST. 73 EMMAY 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION I T. T. STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Gustrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Eumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-54. 4. Morals of the troops remaining in the Gustrow area is poor. Their	COUNTRY GOOD SUBJECT ROORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X STATE 2. All 11. The wing state of the state of	GREAT GR
get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and although the	get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and although the	with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with mumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently	STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently	ONLY GENC COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X	The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently	ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently	COUNTRY G SUBJECT R ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X STATE V 1. Th is 2. Al 1. Th ar 4. Mo cl ha	GRICE GROUP REPORT RY Germany/Russian Zone RY Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 MMay 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN SUPPLEMENT THON The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of	resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of	with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Aumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and although the	STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and although the	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone GUBJECT Russian Troops in the Gustrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X	GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Costrow Area DIST. 73 MWay 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN SUPPLEMENT The present Russian strength in the Costrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. Morale of the troops remaining in the Costrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and although the	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Gustrow Area DIST. 73 EMMay 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION I. The present Russian strength in the Gustrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Gustrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of thand via-vis the civilian population, and although the	COUNTRY G SUBJECT R ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X STATE V 1. Th is 2. Al 11 3. Th ar 4. Mc cl ha gs	GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Castrow Area DIST. 73 Rusy 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN SUPPLEMENT The present Russian strength in the Castrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. Morale of the troops remaining in the distrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and although the
Sieckness and muddle.	SIECKNOSS ENG MUGGIO.	with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Aumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of	STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 26. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone In the Güstrow Area In the present Russian strength in the Güstrow are with armored troops in preponderance. The average is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with a li and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destinate an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow and improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow and improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow and improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow and improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow and improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow and improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow and improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow and improved type of T-34.	GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 RMay 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN SUPPLEMENT The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-54. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand visa-vis the civilian population, and although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Gestrow Area DIST. 73 EMMay 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION I. The present Russian strength in the Gestrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-54. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Gestrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of	COUNTRY GOOD SUBJECT ROORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X STATE 2. All 11. The state of the s	GREAT GENCE GROUP REPORT RY Germany/Russian Zone Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 KMay 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN SUPPLEMENT THON The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their colothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of
5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field	Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field	with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with mumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-à-vis the civilian population, and although the	STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 26. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of	ONLY IMAGENCY COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Gustrow Area ORIGIN I. The present Russian strength in the Gustrow are with armored troops in preponderance. The average is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with a land 20 December 1946 for an unknown destinate an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Gustrow are clothing, including that of officers, is in a phave not received their pay for some time. Con get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population of the severe, the with a disciplinary action is severe, the with a severe, the with a disciplinary action is severe, the with a severe, the with a severe and the	GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 RMay 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN SUPPLEMENT The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-54. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand visa-vis the civilian population, and although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Gestrow Area DIST. 73 EMMay 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION I. The present Russian strength in the Gestrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-54. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Gestrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of	COUNTRY GOOD SUBJECT ROORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X STATE V 1. The wing of the column of t	GREAT GENCE GROUP REPORT RY Germany/Russian Zone Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 KMay 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN SUPPLEMENT THON The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their colothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of
exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in	exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in	with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle.	STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with mumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle.	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X	GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 RMay 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN SUPPLEMENT TOON THE PRESENT SUPPLEMENT The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-54. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vish-vis the civilian population, and although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle.	ORIGIN ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armorded troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops estationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-à-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle.	COUNTRY G SUBJECT R ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X STATE V 1. Th vi 12. Al 13 3. Th ar 4. Mo ol ha gs	GROUP RY Germany/Russian Zone Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 RMay 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN SUPPLEMENT THON T. T. WAR NAVY JUSTICE The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 28, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle.
paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty	paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty	with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but, since the departure of the main forces mentioned in	STATE WAR NAWY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but, since the departure of the main forces mentioned in	ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION The present Russian strength in the Gustrow are with armored troops in preponderance. The average 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with all and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destinate an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Gustrow and improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Gustrow and improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Gustrow and improved type of T-34. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both so exercises; but, since the departure of the main	GENCE GROUP REPORT Resident Troops in the Gestrow area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT The present Russian strength in the Gestrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-54. Morale of the troops remaining in the Gestrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand visa-vis the civilian population, and although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but, since the departure of the main forces mentioned in	ORIGIN COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Gustrow Area DIST. 73 EMMay 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUM ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION I. The present Russian strength in the Gustrow area is at most 4,500 men, with amored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Gustrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but, since the departure of the main forces mentioned in	COUNTRY GOOD SUBJECT ROORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X STATE V 1. The wing of the column of t	GRIT GENCE GROUP REPORT Resian Troops in the Control Area DIST. 73 EM May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT THON The present Russian strength in the Control Area The present Russian strength in the
mon at a cimp.	mon at a Clime.	with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Eumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-à-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but, since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty	STATE WAR NAWY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Humerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty	ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION I. The present Russian strength in the Gustrow are with armored troops in preponderance. The average is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with all and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destinate an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Gustrow and improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Gustrow and improved type of T-34. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both as exercises; but since the departure of the main paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of	GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 RM May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN SUPPLEMENT The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 26. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but, since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paregraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty	ORLY COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EXMay 1947 PAGES 1 SOX1-HUN ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X	COUNTRY GOOD SUBJECT ROORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X STATE V 1. The wing of the column of t	GRIY GENCE GROUP REPORT TO RUSSIAN Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 RE May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN SUPPLEMENT The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but. since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty
6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength	In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital. with a strength	with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but, since the departure of the main forces mentioned in	STATE WAR NAWY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Humerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty	ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION I. The present Russian strength in the Gustrow are with armored troops in preponderance. The average is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with all and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destinate an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Gustrow and improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Gustrow and improved type of T-34. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both as exercises; but since the departure of the main paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of	GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 RM May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN SUPPLEMENT The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 26. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but, since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paregraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty	ORLY COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EXMay 1947 PAGES 1 SOX1-HUN ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X	COUNTRY GOOD SUBJECT ROORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X STATE V 1. The wing of the column of t	GRIY GENCE GROUP REPORT TO RUSSIAN Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 RE May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN SUPPLEMENT The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but. since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty
		with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Aumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but, since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength	STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Eumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but, since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength	ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION I. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow are with armored troops in preponderance. The average is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with all and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destinate an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow are nimproved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow are not received their pay for some time. Conget out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population resulting disoiplinary action is severe, the wind statement of the same and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both as exercises; but, since the departure of the main paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military in the landesbauernschaft there is a m	GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Gestrow Area DIST. 73 RMay 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN The present Russian strength in the Gestrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in prependerance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. Morale of the troops remaining in the destrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. In the Lendesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength	ORIST COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Göstrow Area ORIST PAGES SUPPLEMENT DISTRIBUTION I. The present Russian strength in the Göstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 28, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Göstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and models. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but, since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the lendesbauernschaft there is a military hounital, with a strength	COUNTRY GOOD SUBJECT ROORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X STATE V 1. The wing of the state of	GRIX GENCE GROUP RY Germany/Russian Zone TRussian Troops in the Clistrow Area DIST. 73 May 1947 PAGES 1 SOX1-HUN THON T. T. WAR NAWY JUSTICE The present Russian strength in the Clistrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 -25, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. Morale of the troops remaining in the Clistrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand visa—vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400.	in medical personnel of approximately 400.	with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Aumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but, since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength	STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Eumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but, since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength	ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow are with armored troops in preponderance. The average is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with all and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destinate an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow are all othing, including that of officers, is in a phase not received their pay for some time. Conget out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population resulting disoiplinary action is severe, the wis slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both as exercises; but, since the departure of the main paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military in the landesbauernschaft the	GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Gestrow Area DIST. 73 RMay 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN The present Russian strength in the Gestrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in prependerance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. Morale of the troops remaining in the destrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. In the Lendesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength	ORIST COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Göstrow Area ORIST PAGES SUPPLEMENT DISTRIBUTION I. The present Russian strength in the Göstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 28, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Göstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and models. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but, since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the lendesbauernschaft there is a military hounital, with a strength	COUNTRY GOOD SUBJECT ROORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X STATE V 1. The wing of the state of	GRIX GENCE GROUP RY Germany/Russian Zone TRussian Troops in the Clistrow Area DIST. 73 May 1947 PAGES 1 SOX1-HUN THON T. T. WAR NAWY JUSTICE The present Russian strength in the Clistrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 -25, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. Morale of the troops remaining in the Clistrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand visa—vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength
in medical personnel of approximately 400.	in medical personnel of approximately 400. 50X1-HUI	with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Humerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400.	STATE WAR NAWY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400.	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Gustrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION I The present Russian strength in the Gustrow are with armored troops in preponderance. The average is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with a li and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destinated an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Gustrow are clothing, including that of officers, is in a phase not received their pay for some time. Conget out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population resulting disciplinary action is severe, the wind slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both so exercises; but, since the departure of the main paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military in medical personnel of approximately 400.	GENCE GROUP GENCE GROUP REPORT	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X	COUNTRY GOOD SUBJECT ROUNTRY GOOD STRIBUTION TO STATE VENTON AND STATE VEN	GRIT GENCE GROUP REPORT The resent Russian strength in the Gestrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. Morals of the troops remaining in the Gestrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand visa-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and module. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but, since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400.
in medical personnel of approximately 400. 50X1 7. Staff cars frequently used in the area	in medical personnel of approximately 400. 50X1-HUI	with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Humerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400.	STATE WAR NAWY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400.	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X	GENCE GROUP GENCE GROUP REPORT	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIS ORIS ORIS ORIS COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIS DIST. 73 MMay 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUM SUPPLEMENT 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-54. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand visa-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400.	COUNTRY GOOD SUBJECT ROUNTRY GOOD STRIBUTION TO STATE VENTON AT A COLUMN A	GRIT GENCE GROUP REPORT TOOPS in the Costrow area DIST. 3 May 1947 PAGES 1 SOX1-HUN THON THON THOM
in medical personnel of approximately 400.	in medical personnel of approximately 400. 50X1-HUI	with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Humerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400.	STATE WAR NAWY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400.	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X	GENCE GROUP GENCE GROUP REPORT	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIS ORIS ORIS ORIS COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIS DIST. 73 MMay 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUM SUPPLEMENT 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-54. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand visa-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400.	COUNTRY GOOD SUBJECT ROUNTRY GOOD STRIBUTION TO STATE VENTON AT A COLUMN A	GRIT GENCE GROUP REPORT TOOPS in the Costrow area DIST. 3 May 1947 PAGES 1 SOX1-HUN THON THON THOM
in medical personnel of approximately 400.	in medical personnel of approximately 400. 50X1-HUI	with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Humerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400.	STATE WAR NAWY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400.	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X	GENCE GROUP REPORT GENCE GROUP REPORT	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIST PAGES 1 SOX1-HUM DISTRIBUTION X 7 7	COUNTRY GOOD SUBJECT ROUNTRY GOOD STRIBUTION TO STATE VENTON AT A COLUMN A	GRIT GENCE GROUP REPORT TOOPS in the Gestrow area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 SOX1-HUN THON THON THOM TH
in medical personnel of approximately 400.	in medical personnel of approximately 400. 50X1-HUI	with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Humerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400.	STATE WAR NAWY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400.	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X	GENCE GROUP REPORT GENCE GROUP REPORT	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIST PAGES 1 SOX1-HUM DISTRIBUTION X 7 7	COUNTRY GOOD SUBJECT ROUNTRY GOOD STRIBUTION TO STATE VENTON AT A COLUMN A	GRIT GENCE GROUP REPORT TOOPS in the Gestrow area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 SOX1-HUN THON THON THOM TH
in medical personnel of approximately 400.	in medical personnel of approximately 400. 50X1-HUI	with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Humerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400.	STATE WAR NAWY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400.	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X	GENCE GROUP REPORT GENCE GROUP REPORT	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIST PAGES 1 SOX1-HUM DISTRIBUTION X 7 7	COUNTRY GOOD SUBJECT ROUNTRY GOOD STRIBUTION TO STATE VENTON AT A COLUMN A	GRIT GENCE GROUP REPORT TOOPS in the Gestrow area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 SOX1-HUN THON THON THOM TH
in medical personnel of approximately 400.	in medical personnel of approximately 400. 50X1-HUI	with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Humerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400.	STATE WAR NAWY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400.	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X	GENCE GROUP REPORT GENCE GROUP REPORT	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIST PAGES 1 SOX1-HUM DISTRIBUTION X 7 7	COUNTRY GOOD SUBJECT ROUNTRY GOOD STRIBUTION TO STATE VENTON AT A COLUMN A	GRIT GENCE GROUP REPORT TOOPS in the Gestrow area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 SOX1-HUN THON THON THOM TH
in medical personnel of approximately 400.	in medical personnel of approximately 400. 50X1-HUI	with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Humerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400.	STATE WAR NAWY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400.	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Gustrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION I The present Russian strength in the Gustrow are with armored troops in preponderance. The average is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with a li and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destinated an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Gustrow are clothing, including that of officers, is in a phase not received their pay for some time. Conget out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population resulting disciplinary action is severe, the wind slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both so exercises; but, since the departure of the main paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military in medical personnel of approximately 400.	GENCE GROUP REPORT GENCE GROUP REPORT	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian froops in the Offstrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X	COUNTRY G SUBJECT R ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X STATE V 1. The wing is an arm of the second seco	GRIT GENCE GROUP REPORT The resent Russian strength in the Cletrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 Becember 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. Morale of the troops remaining in the Clistrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand visa-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and module. Training still takes place in the area, both square-baching and field exercises; but, since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400.
in medical personnel of approximately 400.	in medical personnel of approximately 400. 50X1-HUI	with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Humerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400.	STATE WAR NAWY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400.	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Gustrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION I The present Russian strength in the Gustrow are with armored troops in preponderance. The average is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with a li and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destinated an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Gustrow are clothing, including that of officers, is in a phase not received their pay for some time. Conget out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population resulting disciplinary action is severe, the wind slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both so exercises; but, since the departure of the main paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military in medical personnel of approximately 400.	GENCE GROUP REPORT GENCE GROUP REPORT	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian froops in the Offstrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X	COUNTRY G SUBJECT R ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X STATE V 1. The wing is an arm of the second seco	GRIT GENCE GROUP REPORT The resent Russian strength in the Cletrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 Becember 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. Morale of the troops remaining in the Clistrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand visa-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and module. Training still takes place in the area, both square-baching and field exercises; but, since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400.
in medical personnel of approximately 400.	in medical personnel of approximately 400. 50X1-HUI	with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Humerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400.	STATE WAR NAWY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400.	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Gustrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION I The present Russian strength in the Gustrow are with armored troops in preponderance. The average is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with a li and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destinated an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Gustrow are clothing, including that of officers, is in a phase not received their pay for some time. Conget out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population resulting disciplinary action is severe, the wind slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both so exercises; but, since the departure of the main paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military in medical personnel of approximately 400.	GENCE GROUP REPORT GENCE GROUP REPORT	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian froops in the Offstrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X	COUNTRY G SUBJECT R ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X STATE V 1. The wing is an arm of the second seco	GRIT GENCE GROUP REPORT The resent Russian strength in the Cletrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 Becember 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. Morale of the troops remaining in the Clistrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand visa-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and module. Training still takes place in the area, both square-baching and field exercises; but, since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400.
in medical personnel of approximately 400.	in medical personnel of approximately 400. 50X1-HUI	with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Humerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400.	STATE WAR NAWY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400.	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Gustrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION I The present Russian strength in the Gustrow are with armored troops in preponderance. The average is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with a li and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destinated an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Gustrow are clothing, including that of officers, is in a phase not received their pay for some time. Conget out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population resulting disciplinary action is severe, the wind slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both so exercises; but, since the departure of the main paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military in medical personnel of approximately 400.	GENCE GROUP REPORT GENCE GROUP REPORT	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian froops in the Offstrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X	COUNTRY G SUBJECT R ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X STATE V 1. The wing is an arm of the second seco	GRIT GENCE GROUP REPORT The resent Russian strength in the Cletrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 Becember 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. Morale of the troops remaining in the Clistrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand visa-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and module. Training still takes place in the area, both square-baching and field exercises; but, since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400.
7. Staff cars frequently used in the area	Staff cars frequently used in the area	with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Humerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400. 7. Staff cars frequently used in the area	1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Eumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and moddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400. 7. Staff cars frequently used in the area	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Clistrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X 7. 7. STATE WAR NAWY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Clistrow are with armored troops in preponderance. The average 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with a ll and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destinated an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Clistrow are clothing, including that of officers, is in a phave not received their pay for some time. Conget out of hand vis—a-vis the civilian population resulting disciplinary action is severe, the wislackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both se exercises; but, since the departure of the main paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military in medical personnel of approximately 400. 7. Staff cars frequently used in the area	GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Clistrow Area DIST. 73 EXMay 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT The present Russian strength in the Clistrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in prependerance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 26. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of 7-34. Morale of the troops remaining in the Clistrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disadplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but, since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. In the landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400. Staff cars frequently used in the area	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Gletrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT DISTRIBUTION X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X	COUNTRY G SUBJECT R ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X STATE V 1. The wing is an arm of the second seco	TION The present Russian strength in the Gletrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in prependerance. The average age of these troops is a 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. Morale of the troops remaining in the Gletrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-à-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is savere, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and moddle. Training still takes place in the area, both square-basing and field exercises; but, since the departure of the main forces montioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. In the landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400. Staff care frequently used in the area in medical personnel of approximately 400.	Staff cars frequently used in the area	with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Humerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-wis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400. 7. Staff cars frequently used in the area	1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Eumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and moddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400. 7. Staff cars frequently used in the area	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Clistrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X 7 7	GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Gastrow Area DIST. 73 RE Way 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT The present Russian strength in the Gastrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in prependerance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. Morale of the troops remaining in the Gastrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis—vis the civilian population, and, although the received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis—vis the civilian population, and, although the received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis—vis the civilian population, and, although the received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis—vis the civilian population, and, although the received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis—vis the civilian population, and, although the received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently may be a some constant of the same of slackness and maddle. Training still takes place in the area, both square—bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. In the landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400.	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Göstrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X	COUNTRY GOOD SUBJECT ROUNTRY GOOD STRIBUTION TO STATE VENTON AT A COLUMN A	TION The present Russian strength in the Gletrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in prependerance. The average age of these troops is a 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. Morale of the troops remaining in the Gletrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently may be a severed the season of slackness and muddle. Training still takes place in the area, both square-basing and field exercises; but, since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. In the landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400. Staff care frequently used in the area
Staff cars frequently used in the area CLASSIFICATION—GBSTAT CONTROL US OFFICIALS ONLY	Staff cars frequently used in the area CLASSIFICATION—SHORT CONTROL US OFFICIALS ONLY	with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Eumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morals of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some times. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400. 7. Staff cars frequently used in the area CONTROL US OFFICIALS ONLY CONTROL US OFFICIALS ONLY	STATE WAR NAWY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of 7-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400. 7. Staff cars frequently used in the area CONTROL US OFFICIALS CELY	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Gastrow Area ORIGIN 1. The present Russian strength in the Gastrow are with armored troops in preponderance. The area is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destinat an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Gastrow are clothing, including that of officers, is in a phave not received their pay for some time. Congst out of hand vis-a-vis the divilian population resulting disciplinary action is severe, the wis slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both so exercises; but since the departure of the main paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of men at a time. 6. In the landesbauernschaft there is a military in medical personnel of approximately 400. 7. Staff care frequently used in the area.	GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Ollstrow Area DIST. 73 RMay 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUM SUPPLEMENT The present Russian strength in the Ollstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in prependerance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of 7-34. Morals of the troops remaining in the Ollstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently grounting disciplinary action is sewers, both square-bashing and field exercises; but, since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bedies of not more than fifty men at a time. In the landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400. Staff care frequently used in the area.	ORIGIN OBTRIBUTION I. The present Russian strength in the Obstrow area is at most 4,500 mem, vith armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Ruserous tanks, left between 11 and 20 becomes 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of 7-54. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Obstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of Officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis—a-vis the civilian population, and sithough the resulting disabiliary action is savere, the whole atmosphere is one of alackness and maddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and Cield exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bedies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the landsebauermachaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400. 7. Staff care frequently used in the area. CLASSIFICATION— CONNIEDERITIES.	COUNTRY GOOD SUBJECT ROORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X STATE V 1. Trivial is an area of the second s	GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 KMay 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUM The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1945 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of 7-34. Morals of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently should not all staff will the solid and present the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400. Staff care frequently used in the area.
7. Staff cars frequently used in the area	Staff cars frequently used in the area CLASSIFICATION SECURITY CONTROL US OFFICIALS OF LY CONFIDENTIAL	with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Aumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but, since the departure of the main forces montioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400. 7. Staff care frequently used in the area CONTROL US OFFICIALS CHLY	STATE WAR NAWY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum are limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Humsrous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. 4. Morale of the troops remaining in the Güstrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand vis-a-vis the civilian population, and, although the resulting disciplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400. 7. Staff cars frequently used in the area CONTROL US OFFICIALS ONLY Decument No. CONFIDENTIAL	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION I T.	GENCE GROUP REPORT ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT DIST. 73 RMay 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUM SUPPLEMENT ONLY WAR NAW JUSTICE The present Russian strength in the Cletrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with Ruserous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. Morale of the troops remaining in the Cletrow area is poor. Their creating including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of had vise-ray is the sivilan population, and although the resulting disadplinary action is savere, the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and moddle. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400. Staff cars frequently used in the area CONFIDENTIAL	ORIGIN COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Clistrow Area ORIGIN COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Clistrow Area ORIGIN ORIGIN ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION The present Russian strength in the Clistrow area is at most 4.500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 22. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Russrous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of 7-24. 4. Morals of the troops remaining in the Clistrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received their pay for some time. Consequently, they frequently get out of hand wind-win the vivilian population, and glichugh the resulting disadplinary action is severe, the whole atmosphere is one of elackness and maddle. 5. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field excelses; but sines the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. 6. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in section personnel of approximately 400. 7. Staff care frequently used in the area CONFIDENTIAL	COUNTRY GOOD SUBJECT ROUNTRY GOOD STATE VENTON AT A STATE VENTON A	GENCE GROUP REPORT The present Russian strength in the Gustrow area is at most 4,500 men, with amorand troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with Ruserous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of an improved type of T-34. Morale of the troops remaining in the Gustrow area is poor. Their clothing, including that of officers, is in a poor condition and they have not received the average the whole atmosphere is one of slackness and muddles. Training still takes place in the area, both square-bashing and field exercises; but since the departure of the main forces mentioned in paragraph 2, it has been confined to bodies of not more than fifty men at a time. In the Landesbauernschaft there is a military hospital, with a strength in medical personnel of approximately 400. Staff care frequently used in the area. CONFIDENTIAL
with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of			X 7. 7. STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAP	ONLY IGENC COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X	GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT FION T. J. J. JUSTICE APPLICATION LAND JUSTICE ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	ONLY COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 X May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X X X X X JUSTICE STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE	COUNTRY G SUBJECT R ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION	ONLY GENCE GROUP RY Germany/Russian Zone TRussian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT TION X 7 7 May 1947 FIND TION X 7 7 May 1947 FIND TION X 7 7 May 1947 FIND TION X 8 May 1947 FIND TION X 8 May 1947 FIND X 9 May 1947 FIND X 1 May 1947 FIND TION X 1 May 1947 FIND TION X 1 May 1947 FIND X 1 May 1947
with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of			X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X	ONLY IGENC Insurance of problem of the contents in the contents of the content	GROUP GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 RE May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT FION T. J. J. JUSTICE AREA LAPP LAPP LAPP	ONLY TRESSISSION ONLY ONLY ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT DISTRIBUTION DISTRIBUTION X X X X JUSTICE DISTRIBUTION APP	COUNTRY GOUDIECT ROUBLECT ROUB	ONLY GENCE GROUP RY Germany/Russian Zone TRussian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 MMay 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT TION WAR NAVY JUSTICE ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT DIST. 73 MMay 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT
with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Aumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	•	·	X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X	ONLY IMAGENCHICATION COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DISTRIBUTION X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X	GROUP GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 RE May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT FION T. J. J. JUSTICE AREA LAPP LAPP LAPP	ONLY TRESSISSION ONLY ONLY ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT DISTRIBUTION DISTRIBUTION X X X X JUSTICE DISTRIBUTION APP	COUNTRY G SUBJECT R ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION	ONLY GENCE GROUP RY Germany/Russian Zone TRussian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 MMay 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT TION WAR NAVY JUSTICE ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT DIST. 73 MMay 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT
 The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of 	50X1-HU ₁	50X1-HUN	X 7. 7.	ONLY IGENC Insurance of problem of the contents in the contents of the content	GENCE GROUP EREPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	Only Transmission ontents in an machierized promition by COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Gustrow Area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X X X X	COUNTRY GOUDIECT ROUBLECT ROUB	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT
 The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of 				ONLY IGENC Inacthorized Orchibited by COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIGIN	GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 REMAY 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	Only Gence Group COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION	COUNTRY G SUBJECT R ORIGIN	ONLY GENCE GROUP RY Germany/Russian Zone T Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT
 The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of 				ONLY IMAGENCIAN IMAGENCY INCOMESTATE COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION	GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	Only Gence Group COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUI ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION	COUNTRY G SUBJECT R ORIGIN	ONLY GENCE GROUP RY Germany/Russian Zone TRussian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT
 The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of 				ONLY IMAGENCIAN IMAGENCY INCOMESTATE COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIGIN	GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	Only Gence Group COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN ORIGIN	COUNTRY G SUBJECT R ORIGIN	ONLY GENCE GROUP RY Germany/Russian Zone T Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT
 The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with humerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of 				ONLY IMAGENCIANS IMAGENCIANS INCIDENCE INCIDEN	GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 REMAY 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	Only Gence Group COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION	COUNTRY G SUBJECT R ORIGIN	ONLY GENCE GROUP RY Germany/Russian Zone T Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT
 The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. All other troops stationed in this area, with humerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of 				ONLY IMAGENORIZED TO DISTRIBUTION ONLY IGENC IGENC ICENC IC	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Resian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	Only Gence Group Country Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 Rusy 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUI ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION	COUNTRY G SUBJECT R ORIGIN	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Resian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT
1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAP	STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE AND		ONLY IMAGENCIAN IMAGENCY INCOMESTATE COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIGIN	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	Only Gence Group COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 PAGES 1 ORIGIN	COUNTRY G SUBJECT R ORIGIN	ONLY GENCE GROUP RY Germany/Russian Zone T Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT
1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAP	STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE AND	DISTRIBUTION	ONLY IMAGENCIAN IMAGENCY INCOMESTATE COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area ORIGIN	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	Only Gence Group COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 PAGES 1 ORIGIN	COUNTRY G SUBJECT R ORIGIN	ONLY GENCE GROUP RY Germany/Russian Zone T Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT
STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with humerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAP	STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE AND	DISTRIBUTION	contents 1man; manthorized; inchibited by IGENC REPORT COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1	ONLY GENCE GROUP GENCE GROUP EREPORT COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone BUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	COUNTRY G	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Resian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN
STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAP	X 7. 7. X STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE X.A.F	DISTRIBUTION	contents lead; manthorized; prohibited by COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 Ri May 1947 PAGES 1	O, J.S.O 31 and 32 as amended. Its rensmission denterized profiled by GENCE GROUP REPORT COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone BUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	COUNTRY G	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Resian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EMAY 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN
STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAP	X 7. 7. STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE X.F.		ontents liming nanthorized p rehibited by COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN	O, J.S.O 31 and 32 as amended. Its rensmission denterized profiled by GENCE GROUP REPORT COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone BUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	COUNTRY G	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Resian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 Ri May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN
STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAP	X 7. 7. STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE X.F.		ontents liming nanthorized p rehibited by COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN	O, J.S.O 31 and 32 as amended. Its rensmission denterized profiled by GENCE GROUP REPORT COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone BUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	COUNTRY G	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Resian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 Ri May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN
STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAP	X 7. 7. X X STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAF		ontents imany nauthorized prohibited by COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN	O, J.S. 31 and 32 as amended. Its rensmission ontonic inany nauthorized prohibited by GENCE GROUP REPORT COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	COUNTRY G	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Resian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN
STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAP	X 7. 7. X X STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAF		ontents iman; manthorized; prohibited by COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN	O, J.S.O 31 and 32 as amended. Its rensmission ontonis imany nauthorized prohibited by GENCE GROUP REPORT COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone BUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	COUNTRY G	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Resian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN
STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with humerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAP	X 7. 7. X X STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAF		contents 1man; manthorized; inchibited by IGENC REPORT COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN	O, J.S.O 31 and 32 as amended. Its rensmission ontonis imany nauthorized prohibited by GENCE GROUP REPORT COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone BUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	COUNTRY G	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Resian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN
DISTRIBUTION X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X	JTION X. X. WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAAF	STRIBUTION X 7. 7. STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE A.A.F.	TATION	contents than manthorized perchibited by IGENC EREPOR	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 50X1-HUN	O, J.S.O 31 and 32 as amended. Its rensmission ontents inang nauthorized prohibited by GENCE GROUP REPORT COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 50X1-HUN	country G	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 50X1-HUN
DISTRIBUTION X T T X X X X X X X	SUPPLEMENT JION J. J. WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAF	STRIBUTION X 7. 7. STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE SUPPLEMENT X 5. 7. X	SUPPLEMENT	ontents imany nauthorized r remibiled by COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 REMay 1947	O, J.S.O 31 and 32 as amended. Its ransalssien contents imany nauthorized promitived by COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947	rchibiled by	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT RY Germany/Russian Zone T Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 13 RY May 1947
ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X	SUPPLEMENT JTION JTION WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAAF	STRIBUTION X X X X X X STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X	PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	ontents imany nauthorized prohibited by GENC REPOR COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone	Incarional Control Incard Inca	O, J.S.C 31 and 32 as amended. Its ransalssion ontents imany nauthorized r reminished by GENCE GROUP REPORT COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone	rchibiled by	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT RY Germany/Russian Zone Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area
ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X 7. 7. STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with numerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT SUPPLEMENT TION X WAR NAVY JUSTICE TANK	PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT STRIBUTION X 7. 7. STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 50X1-HUN SUPPLEMENT 50X1-HUN SUPPLEMENT	PAGES 1 50X1-HUN	ontents liming nauthorized p rehibited by GENC REPOR	Inc. A Seed I GENCE GROUP REPORT TY Germany/Russian Zone	O, J.S.O 31 and 32 as amended. Its reassalssien de contents liming nauthorized prohibited by GENCE GROUP REPORT COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone	rchibiled by	ONLY GENCE GROUP REPORT RY Germany/Russian Zone
ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION LATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with humerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	DIST. 73 RE May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT SUPPLEMENT THON WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAP	PAGES 1 50X1-HUN SUPPLEMENT STRIBUTION X 7. 7. STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT X 7. 7. X 7. X 7. X 7. X 7. X 7. X 7.	PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	ontents than ONLY IGENC ISSUED IN ISSUED ISS	Inerty and I is by IGENCE GROUP REPORT	O, J.S.O 31 and 32 as amended. Its reassalssien described in the second only nauthorized prohibited by GENCE GROUP REPORT	rchibiled by	ONLY Seed 1 d by IGENCE GROUP E REPORT
ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X 7 7	DIST. 73 RE May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT SUPPLEMENT THON WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAP	PAGES 1 50X1-HUN SUPPLEMENT STRIBUTION X 7. 7. STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT X 7. 7. X 7. X 7. X 7. X 7. X 7. X 7.	PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	ontents 1man; nauthorized; prohibited by IGENC REPOR	Inerty and I is by IGENCE GROUP REPORT	ontents inangemental to as smended. Its contents inangemental to a smended. Its only GENCE GROUP REPORT	rchibiled by	ONLY Seed 1 d by IGENCE GROUP E REPORT
ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X 7 7	DIST. 73 RE May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT SUPPLEMENT THON WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAP	RIGIN DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT STRIBUTION X 7. 7. STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE AAP	PAGES 1 50X1-HUI	ontents than; nauthorized prohibited by	INEAS ONLY IGENCE GROUP	ontenis inany nauthorized p rehibited by		ONLY GENCE GROUP
DIST. 73 EMMay 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT DISTRIBUTION X X X X X X X X X	THON THON WAR NAVY JUSTICE DIST. 73 RE MAY 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT DIST. 73 RE MAY 1947 SOX1-HU SIPPLEMENT	DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT STRIBUTION X 7. 7. STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE DIST. 73 EX May 1947 50X1-HUI SUPPLEMENT	SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	ontents thang manthorized p rediction by	INEAS ONLY IGENCE GROUP	ontenis inany nauthorized r continued by GENCE GROUP		ONLY Sed 1 G by GENCE GROUP
DIST. 73 EMMay 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT DISTRIBUTION I J J J J J J J J J J J J J J J J J J	THON THON WAR NAVY JUSTICE DIST. 73 RE MAY 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT DIST. 73 RE MAY 1947 SOX1-HU SIPPLEMENT	DIST. 73 IX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT STRIBUTION X 7. 7. STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE DIST. 73 IX May 1947 50X1-HUI X 7. 7. X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X	SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	ontents them mentiorized ; prohibited by GENC	INEAS ONLY IGENCE GROUP	on J.S.O 31 and 32 as amended. Its		ONLY Sed 1 G by GENCE GROUP
COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 X May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1 ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X 7 7 STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	RY Germany/Russian Zone TRussian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT THON WAR NAVY JUSTICE TABLES AND TOOM AND TOOM TOOM	DUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone JBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT STRIBUTION X 7. 7. STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	ontents Imag	Internal ONLY	O, J.S.O 31 and 32 as amended. Its Success rensalesion d ontonic limit nauthorized ; ONLY		1man ONLY
COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 13 RMay 1947 PAGES 1 50X1 ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X 7 7	RY Germany/Russian Zone TRussian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 RI May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT DIST. 73 RI May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	DUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone JBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 KMay 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT STRIBUTION X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	contents imany	ONLY	O, J.S.O 31 and 32 as amended. Its SHORES reasalssion of ontents lineary nearly reasals and the second of the second on the second of the second on the second of the seco	INECTICATION AND	1 many
COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 R May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT DISTRIBUTION X 7. 7. STATE WAR NAWY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 23, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	IGENCE GROUP REPORT RY Germany/Russian Zone TRussian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	IGENCE GROUP E REPORT DUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone JAJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT STRIBUTION X 7. 7. STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 XX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT			0, J.S.O 31 and 32 as amended. Its Succession of
GENCE GROUP REPORT COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 RE May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT DISTRIBUTION X 7 7	IGENCE GROUP RY Germany/Russian Zone TRussian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT DITION X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X X	IGENCE GROUP ENDUTRY Germany/Russian Zone PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE IGENCE GROUP EREPORT DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT X 7 7 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	GENCE GROUP COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone	marant autor of	LL024 X	0, J.S.D 31 and 32 as smended. Its SHOWER
COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EMMay 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT DISTRIBUTION X 7. 7. STATE WAR NAWY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Güstrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	ONLY IGENCE GROUP RY Germany/Russian Zone TRussian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT DIST. 73 EX May 1947 SUPPLEMENT DIST. 73 EX May 1947 SUPPLEMENT	CONLY CHORIZED T CONLY IGENCE GROUP ERPORT CONLY IGENCE GROUP EXAMPLE OF THE CONTROL O	ontents imany neuthorized; reministed by IGENCE GROUP REPORT COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	you of the part of the thirty	72 man 72 to tanoismont - 11			72 total 72 to tanonata 24
COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Gustrow Area DIST. 73 May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1 ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X 7. 7. STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Gustrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	ONLY GENCE GROUP RY Germany/Russian Zone TRussian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 MMay 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT DIST. 73 MMay 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE ONLY GENCE GROUP EREPORT ONLY IGENCE GROUP EREPORT DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN SUPPLEMENT	COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT		3) And 12 as amended. Its — Entire
ONLY INCOME INAM COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Gustrow Area DIST. 73 MMay 1947 PAGES 1 50X1 ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION X 7 7 STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE 1. The present Russian strength in the Gustrow area is at most 4,500 men, with armored troops in preponderance. The average age of these troops is 22 - 25, with a maximum age limit of 28. 2. All other troops stationed in this area, with Rumerous tanks, left between 11 and 20 December 1946 for an unknown destination. 3. There remain in the area approximately 100 tanks, which appear to be of	ONLY GENCE GROUP RY Germany/Russian Zone TRussian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 MMay 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT DIST. 73 MMay 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT	STATE WAR NAVY JUSTICE ONLY GENCE GROUP EREPORT ONLY IGENCE GROUP EREPORT DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 50X1-HUN SUPPLEMENT	ONLY GENCE GROUP COUNTRY Germany/Russian Zone SUBJECT Russian Troops in the Güstrow Area DIST. 73 EX May 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT			the national defense of the United States CONFIDENTIAL		s meaning of the repronage Act,